

Adopt-a-Book

Become a Part of Ralston School History

What is Adopt-a-Book?

You can participate in our Adopt-a-Book program by purchasing a book and donating it back to the library.

Why Adopt-a-Book?

Ralston, like many schools, has limited funds for purchasing new books. The introduction of new titles and authors to our library will add variety and broaden your student's horizons.

How Do I Adopt-a-Book?

You have three options: shop on the net, shop local or pay for a book with a check.

1. Go to Amazon.com and look for a wish list for Ralston Middle School
2. Shop at the local book store The Reading Bug at 785 Laurel Street in San Carlos mention The Ralston Library and we receive a percentage of the Bug Bucks to redeem.
3. Donate $25.00 Write checks to Ralston Middle School in the memo print library.

.Purchase a new hardback (if available) book from the wish list on Amazon or The Reading Bug and mail to Ralston School, 2675 Ralston Avenue, Belmont, CA 92004

What Happens When You Adopt-a-Book?

- The label will be attached to the inside cover and every student for years to come will know your family's generosity.
- Your name is published in the Ralston Ram's newsletter under Friends of the Library.
- Your name is added onto the Ralston Library Website under Friends of the Library.
