The Belmont Police will be on hand to talk about current trends in our community in regards to our youth. The focus of the topics will revolve around drugs, drug use and some lessons that can be learned. The School Resource Officers from the police department will be on hand to answer questions and they will bring a guest speaker to help give parents a perspective of how easy it is for kids to fall into the world of drugs and drug use. The event is FREE and is meant for parents and adult family members over the age of 18 who are raising/supervising children.
